

The Armada Bot Terms of Service

1. Introduction

These Terms of Service govern the use of The Armada Bot, herein referred to as “the Bot,” which is provided for use within Discord servers under the administration of The Armada community. By inviting, using, or interacting with the Bot in any capacity, the user and server administrators agree to be bound by the terms set forth in this document.

2. Eligibility and Responsibility

Use of the Bot is permitted solely to individuals and server administrators who have the authority to manage a Discord server. Server owners and administrators bear full responsibility for the configuration, usage, and moderation of the Bot within their respective servers. Any actions performed through the Bot within a server are deemed to be authorized by that server’s administration.

3. Acceptable Use

Users agree not to engage in any activity that may interfere with or disrupt the intended operation of the Bot. This includes but is not limited to attempts to exploit vulnerabilities, reverse engineer functionality, automate abusive interactions, or utilize the Bot in a manner inconsistent with its intended purpose. Any form of malicious, deceptive, or harmful use is strictly prohibited.

4. Service Availability

The Bot is provided on an as-is and as-available basis. No guarantee is made regarding uninterrupted availability, uptime, or long-term continuity. The developer reserves the right to modify, suspend, or discontinue any part of the Bot at any time without prior notice.

5. Data and Logging

The Bot may process and store data necessary for operational functionality, including but not limited to Discord user identifiers, server identifiers, role configurations, and system-generated activity logs. This data is used strictly for the purpose of enabling features and maintaining system integrity.

6. Termination of Access

Access to the Bot may be revoked, restricted, or removed from any server or user at the sole discretion of the developer in cases of misuse, abuse, or violation of these Terms.

7. Amendments

These Terms of Service may be updated or revised at any time. Continued use of the Bot following any changes constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.

8. Contact

For inquiries, reports, or requests regarding the Bot, users may contact the developer, Firemayo.
